

‘Art of the Recital’ to be held at Payson Park Church in Belmont

Posted Nov 6, 2019 at 5:49 PM

Award-winning classical musicians Joshua Peckins, violin, and Eliko Akahori, piano, will perform a recital at 3 p.m. Nov. 17 at the Payson Park Church in Belmont, 365 Belmont St.

The recital will feature the final sonatas ever written by Beethoven and Brahms, as well as Bach’s “Chaconne!”

This continues the “Art of the Recital” concert series, launched in 2016 by Peckins which brings live concerts to Belmont and surrounding communities.

Peckins has presented solo recitals nationally and internationally in over 30 venues, including the Figaro Hall of Palace Pálffy, Crystal Hall in Japan, Haydn and Mendelssohn Halls in Austria, as well as on the Artist Series of the Bled Festival in Slovenia, the Salzburg Festival at the Mozarteum, the Orford Festival in Canada, and the Cervo Festival in Italy.

Akahori is also an award-winning concert musician who has performed around the world and is the director of the music department at Wellesley College.

The Nov. 17 recital will feature masterpieces by Bach, Beethoven, Brahms and Mozart.

Tickets are $22.

For information and tickets, visit <http://artoftherecital.org>.